Campbellsville College is located on College Street in Taylor County. The College is a private, liberal arts, sciences and business college and is affiliated with the Kentucky Baptist Convention.

Let's take a journey . . .

Wouldn't it be grand to go on a fun-filled, year-long journey to a marvelous place, without even leaving your seat? Of course it would. Come along!

You are invited on a trip down the Maple Trail, a trail of good times and good people that will take you directly to Memory Lane. From there, you will walk down paths of Laughter and Pride and Friendship until you reach the heart of Campbellsville College.

The Maple Trail is for your own delight, so take your time along your way. Stop and enjoy each photograph and story. Cherish every memory and keep it with you for a lifetime.

A snack bar, game room and TV room will be inside the building, as well as an area for large banquets and an assembly room to seat 800 or more people.

Something Old . . . Something New

Dr. Ron Ellis looks out his window several times daily and sees Campbellsville College's "old gym." It's a sight that is bringing smiles to his face these days.

The College's old gym hasn't been used since the early 1970s, but it's getting total renovation — to the tune of $1.2 million — and becoming the Student Activities Center.

Changes are happening daily, and Ellis is pleased. Once it's finished, which should be tentatively early summer, the Student Activities Center should become a "focal point of the campus," Ellis said.

"When you drive into the circle, it will be the focal attraction," he said. He explained that the parking lot around it will be removed with perimeter parking around the main buildings.

Sidewalks will radiate from the buildings in the mall, and the central campus will be a "walking campus." "It will enhance the campus' 'collegiate' look," he said.

"I'm excited about it (the renovation)," said Ellis. "It's a much needed addition and a great morale booster."

The project began with a $100,000 gift from the Brown Foundation. Branscum Construction of Russell Springs is managing the project under Ellis' direction.

All the work will be for a building that will be used for areas such as intramural, basketball, volleyball, tennis and roller skating.

A seating area for 800 will be in the building which will also allow the College to have large meal functions and banquet space. Above the foyer area will be office space and a conference room opening onto the front porch balcony.

A snack bar, game room and soundproof TV room will be in the basement as will rooms for equipment and storage.

A "window on the world" atrium (a glass enclosed area) with an open stairway will be on the back and sides of the building, Ellis said. A balcony will look over the atrium.

War Touches Home

No single event of this year affected the College family as did the Gulf War.

As early as August, family and friends were being called to serve in the Middle East. In January, war broke out and fear and apprehension mounted at home.

Campbellsville College showed great concern for the troops, as well as for the family members and friends who were left behind. Wednesday, Jan. 30, was "American Spirit Day" on campus. During convocation, Dr. Damon Eubank, assistant professor of history at the College, presented a speech, "The Gulf War, What Does It Mean To The College Family?"

Eubank encouraged students to not fear the war because we have no control over it. He simply urged them to turn to God for comfort. "God is control," he said. "Turn to Him. He is our comfort. He is our rock."

According to Sylvia Morris, dean of student development, at least three-fourths of the audience stood in response to having friends involved in the conflict.

Also during the "American Spirit Day" program, special patriotic music was presented by Nevalyn Moore, instructor in music, the Campbellsville College Handbells, which she directs, and Jamie Ward, a sophomore.

Morris said the office of student development made and distributed patriotic red, white and blue ribbons. They also created a "remembrance tree" where yellow ribbons, bearing names of the College friends and relatives who were or still are serving in the Middle East, were placed for remembrance.

A Fun-Filled Week

Freshman Week

Aug. 27-31 was "Freshman Week," a fun-filled week for new freshmen.

"Freshman Week" was sponsored by the senior class and intended to get the new students acquainted with the old.

The week's activities kicked off on Monday with a freshman/senior party. Tuesday was a volleyball match. The freshmen teamed up against the seniors for a game of "Win, Lose, or Draw" on Wednesday.

On Thursday a "Student Auction" was held. Freshmen were auctioned off to seniors. Then, on Friday, they were slaves-for-the-day for their senior masters.

Also on Friday, there was a "shaving cream revenge" on the Stapp Hall lawn. The freshmen had a chance at last to get revenge.

The Way We Are

It is the intention of the Maple Trail staff to use pictures and words to capture the Campbellsville College family "the way we are" the way we are every day, on good days and on bad ones.

If a single word could describe "the way we are," it would probably be "busy." Campbellsville College life is busy, busy, busy!

When students aren't sleeping, studying or going to classes, their lives are filled with extra-curricular activities and social events. There are work study, club meetings, ball games and intramural sports. There is always something to do, whether it is a campus event or a walk with a friend or just a night alone to write home to Mom and Dad.

BUSY — "that's the way we are." Will we ever get it all done or is spare time a thing of the past?

HOMECOMING '90

"Excitement" and "enthusiasm" — those two words were used to describe Campbellsville College during Homecoming '90.

It was excitement as coach Ron Finley's "Fighting Tigers" won the College's first football Homecoming game. The Tigers defeated Lambuth College 37 to 17.

It was also excitement as Sharon Thomas, a junior from Shepherdsville, was crowned 1990 Homecoming Queen.

It was enthusiasm as alumni returned to see "Campbellsville College — Like It Has Never Been Before," the theme of Homecoming '90.

Student activities during Homecoming included such events as making of the world's largest banana split, a beach party in the College's gym, a pep rally, etc. Joey Foster, a sophomore from Campbellsville, and Heather Arnold, a junior from Lewisburg, Ohio, were student Homecoming committee chairpersons.

‘PUNCH and JUDY’

Fifteen students and children took to the stage Feb. 21-23 when Campbellsville College's Children's Theater presented "Punch and Judy."

Russ Mobley, who directed the production, said "Punch and Judy" was described as a tragical comedy by some and a comical tragedy by others.

He said the story line concerned traditional tales told by Punch, which were retold and updated. Punch had traveled all over the world. The characters in the play were the very ones that Punch had met down the years.

Punch, Mobley said, has always represented the spirit of mankind in his determination to remain free.

'Star-Spangled Girl'

The stars came out in November as Campbellsville College presented its fall production, "Star-Spangled Girl."

The play, by Neil Simon, was a "fast moving, hilarious comedy," according to Russ Mobley, assistant professor of drama and speech at the College.

With a cast of three, "Star-Spangled Girl" dealt with two earnest young men struggling to publish a "protest" magazine, and the all-American girl who moved in next door and managed to send both of them into a romantic tailspin.

Cindy Pound, a sophomore at the College from Granville, Ohio, starred as "Sophie." John Neikirk, who attended the College in spring 1990, was "Andy." The part of "Norman" was played by Rick Wigginton, a 1990 graduate of the College.

Founders' Day

Throughout all of its changes "Campbellsville College has maintained its reputation for 'quality, dignity and distinction'."

Quality, dignity and distinction — that's the way the day went.

Campbellsville College had its first annual Founders' Day Ceremony Sept. 20. And the Founders' Day address was given by one of the College's most prestigious alums — Dr. Bruce Heilman, chancellor of the University of Richmond in Richmond, Va.

Heilman, a 1949 graduate, stressed Campbellsville College's proud history and its impact on the future.

"... the past cannot compare with what the College has become and what it is capable of becoming. At no other college that I've attended have I seen as much human consideration as I found at Campbellsville."

— Dr. Bruce Heilman

Charles L. Westray of Louisville and Lawrence Hall of Elizabethtown received honorary doctor of business degrees for being "distinguished supporters of our institution."

Chris Casey Trout, a senior at the College, sang "My Tribute."

The faculty was dressed in academic regalia, which Winters said was a good experience for the guests and for the student body.

Christmas . . . a time for Celebration

Campbellsville College celebrated the season in December. Food and dance, pretty lights and Christmas carols filled the long days before Christmas break.

On Dec. 1, the College had its first ever Snowflake Ball — a dance for the students that was highlighted with the crowning of the Snowflake King and Queen.

The students elected Kathleen Bush, a senior from Elizabethtown, as their queen.

Snowflake King was David Delk, a senior from Russell Springs.

On Dec. 7, Campbellsville College held its annual Christmas Celebration. This was a special time for the College to meet together as a family.

With the war in the Gulf about to get under way, however, this year would be a little different. The theme of the Christmas Celebration was "Peace on Earth" — a patriotic theme to honor the troops serving in the Middle East.

The program included Christmas music and other presentations by faculty, staff and students. And, of course, Santa helped in the lighting of the Maple Trail.

The following provided entertainment: BSU creative ministries team, Lynn Sanders, Keith Jones, Cindy Pound, Billy Gregory, Robert Dotson, the College Concert Chorus, Kathleen Bush and Shirley Winters.

Dancers were treated to a Cinderella theme cake.

About 250 students, faculty and staff members turned out for the 1991 Spring Formal Saturday, April 20 at Powell Athletic Center on campus.

The theme of this year's dance was "enchantment" with the primary color scheme being pink, silver and teal. The gym was decorated with a large canopy and a checkerboard floor with teal and silver balloons. A canopy of streamers was in the lobby.

Music was presented by HOBBSounds of Columbia.

Phi Beta Lambda 'Adopts Road'

Campbellsville College's Phi Beta Lambda is pitching in to clean up the community and the environment.

The group adopted 2.1 miles of roadway under the Kentucky Department of Highways' "Adopt a Highway" program.

The program requires that the adoptee pick up trash along the road at least four times a year. Phi Beta Lambda picked up for the first time April 30.

It took the group about two hours to complete the task of cleaning up parts of old Hwy. 210 and North Columbia Ave.

According to David Delk, president of Phi Beta Lambda, the organization adopted the road as a community service project. Phi Beta Lambda is a professional business organization that "encourages community involvement."

SENIOR SECTION

Who am I?

What do you want to be when you grow up? A musician, a scholar, an athlete?

It hasn't been many years ago since we were considering this question, a question all children must eventually consider.

Here are a few who finally decided what they wanted to be and set out to do what they had to do.

After years of hard work and a lifetime of memories, these children have at last reached their hearts' ambitions.

Now they are grown-ups. They are musicians and scholars and athletes. They are Campbellsville College seniors.

See if you can guess who these babies have become. Check your answers on page 38.

1. — I study psychology and music. I was president of CBYW and a devoted member of BSU. Who am I?

2. — I am a "physical" person; I like to sing and dance. I cheer along with the cheerleaders. Who am I?

3. — I am a magna cum laude who is really into "education." Who am I?

4. — I am not only a leader and a player, "I am Player of the Year." Who am I?

5. — I worked in student records. I am an education major who loves children. In fact, I have one child of my own. Who am I?

6. — I am a history major from Campbellsville, and I "manage" sports well. Who am I?

7. — I am from Camby, Ind. but you've probably seen me around the College pool. I enjoy being in the water. Who am I?

8. — I was a BIG help on the yearbook. I was a cheerleader. And, I never wore the same thing twice. Who am I?

9. — I always have my nose buried in a book. I won an award at graduation and am headed for med-school in the fall. Who am I?

10. — I commute from Greensburg to the College, where I spend a great deal of time in the library furthering education. Who am I?

11. — I am a native of Taylor County and a commuter from Bradfordsville. I am a political science major and a social studies minor. Who am I?

12. — I play tennis and baseball. When it comes to basketball, I am really good with numbers. Who am I?

13. — I am from Springfield. Business is my business. Who am I?

14. — Although I am an athlete from Scottsville, I have become known as "Miss Campbellsville." Who am I?

15. — I am an education major from Springfield. However, I once was a Baker. Who am I?

Crews, Bennett Honored as Mr., Miss Campbellsville

"Miss Campbellsville College" Cortni Crews commends her alma mater.

"I am grateful I chose Campbellsville College and would recommend it to anyone," said Crews. "It is the kind of school I would want my children to attend."

Byron Bennett and Crews were named "Mr. and Miss Campbellsville College" during the Honors and Awards Day ceremony in the College Alumni Building May 1.

They were selected for their honors, by faculty and staff, on the basis of scholarship, leadership and character.

Bennett said he was "really surprised and honored" when he was first told that he would be the next "Mr. Campbellsville College." He said President Dr. Ken Winters called him the night before with the good news.

Bennett is the son of Ronald Keith and Geraldine Colvin Bennett and is a 1986 graduate of Taylor County High School. He graduated from Campbellsville College May 11 with a bachelor's of science degree in business administration with an accounting emphasis.

He is setting his sights on a good job and marriage after graduation.

Bennett has been a member of the Campbellsville College Golf Team for the past three years. As a District 32 champion, he played in the nationals in Oklahoma City May 20.

Bennett won the Lowest Scoring Average and Most Valuable Player Award in golf in 1990. He made All-KIAC and District 32 Teams as well. Bennett has also been named to the College's academic honors' list.

Bennett said he is "comfortable" with the friendly atmosphere of Campbellsville College. He enjoys the personal attention he gets here. "Here, you are a person," said Bennett, "not just a number."

Crews said she too enjoys the small family atmosphere of Campbellsville College. "The academic standards of the College are advanced because of the small student to teacher ratio," said Crews.

Crews, a Scottsville native, is the daughter of Frank D. and Doris Bea Crews. She graduated from Allen County-Scottsville High School in 1987.

Crews admitted that the opportunity to play basketball for the Lady Tigers is what led her to Campbellsville College. She has been a member of the team for four years.

She said the highlight of her basketball career was when the team took the District 32 victory and went to the nationals in Jackson, Tenn. for two consecutive years.

Crews has also played tennis for the past four years and was seeded number one her senior year. She played softball for three years.

"However, while the opportunity to play basketball led me to Campbellsville," said Crews, "the Christian atmosphere is what made me stay here."

It has been exciting to be a part of all the changes, said Crews. She said she has seen a great improvement in student morale. "There is a sense of Tiger Pride that was absent when I first started," she said.

Crews also graduated in May. She received a bachelor's of science degree in social studies, with secondary teacher's certification.

In the future, Crews would like to attend graduate school at Western Kentucky University and obtain her master's degree.

"Mr. and Miss Campbellsville College" is a Student Government Association Award and was presented by Susie Crowder, president of SGA.

SPORTS

WE HAVE ARRIVED!

In the beginning of the 1990 season for the Campbellsville College Football Team, head coach Ron Finley knew his fighting Tigers could improve on their 2-7-1 record from the year before.

This is only the third year for varsity football at Campbellsville College, and with only eight seniors on the team, it looked as if a mediocre season was in store for the Tigers.

For being such a young team, it seemed a bit strange that the Tigers finished with a very impressive 8-2 record and a ranking of 28th in the nation in NAIA Division II football.

"I believe the reason we have achieved so much this year is because of senior leadership, and hard work and dedication they and the younger kids have put in," said Finley.

The Tigers began the season on a rampage by winning five straight. The wins began by defeating strong Wilmington College of Ohio 35-24. Two other victories came from first-year schools Cumberland University in Tennessee and Mt. St. Joseph of Ohio.

The Tigers also had wins over conference opponent Tennessee Wesleyan College 40-10 and former conference member Kentucky Wesleyan College 35-20.

Their first loss of the season came from conference foe Cumberland College who won a tight game 24-14.

Bouncing back from the loss, the Tigers went on another win streak of three in a row with wins over University of Evansville, another conference opponent, 35-20, a Homecoming win over Lambuth College 37-17, who will be a conference member in 1991, and a victory over always tough Union College 28-11.

For the first five weeks of the season, the Tigers were ranked number one in the nation in rushing defense, giving up less than a yard and a half per carry.

The offense also has something to boast about as they were in the top ten all season in rushing yards and points

"I believe the reason we have achieved so much this year is because of senior leadership, and the hard work and dedication they and the younger kids have put in."

After the Homecoming win over Lambuth, Campbellsville jumped into the top 25 for the first time as the Tigers had been ranked in the top 30 nearly all season.

"I think anytime the other teams in your division vote for you, it means you have shown significant progress," said Finley. "It gives our school something to be proud of."

Finley noted what an accomplishment it was for the short time the football team has been here. Football was reinstated at Campbellsville College in 1987.

The outcomes of the Mid-South Conference standings came down to the final game between Campbellsville and Georgetown. If the Tigers of Campbellsville won, it would be a three-way tie for first place in the conference with Georgetown, Cumberland and Campbellsville. If Georgetown won, they would sit in first in the conference while Campbellsville would finish third.

Both teams were 8-1 going into the final game. Georgetown was ranked seventh in the nation while Campbellsville was ranked 23rd. This game was for all the marbles.

Both teams played well, but it was Georgetown who took the dominating hand and by the end of the fourth quarter the Tigers of Orange had defeated the Tigers of Maroon 28-13.

Campbellsville finished the season with an outstanding 8-2 record and a 28th nationwide ranking. The Tigers ended the year with a fifth place ranking in rushing offense, averaging 292 yards per game and a third place ranking in rushing defense allowing only 72.6 yards on the ground per game.

SENIOR LEADERSHIP

The Beginning of a

SOLID FOUNDATION

Tigers had a disappointing 0-11, followed by a mediocre 2-7-1 record. But this was the year of the Tigers, and the seniors had a chance to prove to themselves and others that they had grown and could lead a team to a successful year.

This year the team went 8-2 and ended the season ranked 28th in the nation. As the seniors move on and pass the hat to the juniors and seniors of next year, they know that the "commitment to excellence" will go on.

RUNNIN' & GUNNIN'

Kansas City

This must have been a year of destiny for sports at Campbellsville College as NAIA District 32 Coach of the Year Lou Cunningham guided his Tigers to the national tournament in Kansas City for the first time in ten years.

Many people wrote this team off at the beginning of the season because of the loss of the three great seniors of last year. Gone were District 32 and KIAC Player of the Year, Todd Armes, rebounding specialist Vernon Billups and Phil Cunningham, the Tigers' shooting guard and assist man.

The Tigers, with their new up-tempo offense, set the district on fire leading the nation in scoring with 111.26 points per game and setting a national scoring mark for a single game with 171 points in their first home game against Grace-land University.

Coach Lou Cunningham, 1989-90 District 32 and KIAC Coach of the Year, credits his three seniors, point guard Jerry Butler, forward Rick Staley and shooting guard Shane Blevins, for their leadership this season.

Butler is the catalyst of the fast-breaking Tigers and set the pace for the rest of the team. He was ranked fourteen in the nation in assists and also eclipsed the 1000-point mark for his career. Butler was slowed down by a foot injury but continued to play and race past opponents.

Staley had been on fire since Christmas break and was selected District 32 and KIAC Player of the Week for his performance. Staley's numbers speak for themselves.

In three games, Staley had 73 points, 41 rebounds, eight assists, six blocks and five steals. Staley played a key role on the way to Kansas City.

Blevins was definitely the three-point wizard of the Tigers having hit a total over 110 throughout the season. Blevins had the knack of changing the score of the game in a matter of moments.

There were standouts among the 1990-91 Tigers, but Blevins, Staley and Butler were vital parts of the team's success according to Cunningham.

The rest of the Tigers played their roles like a fine-tuned engine. Players like junior Greg Floyd, a good all-around athlete who played guard and small forward, or freshman Benji Kelly who was ranked seventh in the nation in three-point field goal percentage, were definite assets to the team.

"Our successful season can be credited to the hard work and determination our guys put forth this year."

— Coach Lou Cunningham

One player who really came on this season was sophomore center Sammy Watene. Watene, from Kenya, came off the bench to ignite the crowd with his hustle and effort to get rebounds and his newly-found gift of power dunks.

When Butler sat down, nothing was ever lost because freshman Ramont Smith could take over like it was second nature to him.

The defensive specialist off the bench at the guard position was Jason Worth. Worth was a junior guard and a crowd

Greg Hoagland was another guard who could light it up from three-point land. "Chris Gray was also an excellent shooter," said Cunningham. Another crowd favorite was William Hamblin, a freshman from Louisville, who joined the team following the end of football season.

Terry Wright, a freshman, added strength and leaping ability to the small forward position.

The chemistry was there and the stage was set for what would become the first nation playoff team in ten years.

The Tigers went through the District 32 tournament springing up on everyone they played including victories over Alice Lloyd, Georgetown and Cumberland colleges.

After the game, Butler was named KIAC Player of the Year and was named to the All-KIAC team along with Staley.

Arriving in Kansas City, the Tigers faced a tough Rio Grande College Team from Ohio and it was 'run and gun' throughout the game for both teams. The Tigers were up by as many as 13 points but just couldn't hold on to the lead and eventually lost 111-92.

The Tigers had a very successful season and more good things should be on the way for next year.

Lady Tigers Earn 2nd Trip to Jackson

Basketball fans of the Lady Tigers may have felt a little skepticism toward their team heading into the 1990-91 season.

After all, the Lady Tigers had just come off an excellent season going all the way to the Women's National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) Tournament in Jackson, Tenn. Add to that, the loss of three seniors; Sarah Moody and two Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and NAIA District 32 Players of the Year, Jackie Prather in 1989 and Ginger High in 1990.

To all the skeptics out there, the Lady Tigers came back this year with vengeance. In fact, not only did they have an outstanding year, but they exceeded all expectations by earning trips to their respective national tournaments.

Being picked fourth in the pre-season district standings, the Lady Tigers, led by seniors Becky Smith of Glasgow and Cortni Crews of Scottsville, looked over the odds and began their season on a 5-0 winning streak before falling to a tough Berry College team from Georgia in overtime.

The team then hit a rough spot midway through the season losing three close games in a row, two of them to district opponents. But the Lady Tigers knew that if they were going to have a championship season, they were going to have to turn it up a notch or two.

Consequently, the team started tearing through the district, beating everyone they played. In fact, the Lady Tigers won the last 12 out of 13 games which led to a season record of 19-6 that was better than the national team the year before.

"Becky and Cortni's senior leadership and consistency throughout the year led us to the nationals." — Coach Donna Wise

At the end of the regular season, the Lady Tigers were seeded fourth for the District 32 tournament. But it seemed as if the team was on a mission as they handed out defeats to Transylvania University and arch rival Lindsey Wilson College and finally beat Cumberland College for the District 32 Championship 68-66 and a second trip in a row for the national tournament in Jackson, Tenn. After the game, Smith was named KIAC Player of the Year and was named to the KIAC All-Conference Team along with teammate Kendra Germain of Monticello.

Smith led the Lady Tigers to a second straight national appearance. She crept out of the shadows of the two former All-Americans to lead her team to an impressive 22-8 overall record and was named to the NAIA All-American third team.

Smith was ranked second on the Campbellsville College's all-time scoring list with 1,946 points second to only Betty Conover who still holds the record with 2,338 points.

Another strong point to this year's squad was senior Cortni Crews whose tough inside play and strong senior leadership was obvious all year long.

"I cannot say enough about Becky," said head coach Donna Wise, who is now only two games shy of the 300 win mark. "She and Cortni's senior leadership and consistency throughout the year led us to the nationals," she said. Going into the national tournament, the Lady Tigers were seeded 20th and were up against a very strong Northern Montana team that was seeded 13th.

The women played a tight game all the way through, but it was the lack of consistent free-throw shooting that led to a 61-60 nail-biter loss in the first round. It was a bittersweet end to the Lady Tigers' season as they made it to the nationals for the second straight year, only to lose a close one in the first round.

‘LET’S PLAY HARDBALL’

In July of 1990, Beauford Sanders, a native South Carolinian and veteran junior college coach since 1978, accepted the head coach's position at Campbellsville College.

Sanders took over the baseball reins from Coach Ron Finley who is devoting full time to his head coaching duties with football. "A new beginning" for Tiger baseball had begun.

"Many coaches dream about having an opportunity to teach and work at a senior college. Campbellsville has a rich history of success in baseball. My goal is to rebuild the program and establish that kind of success in the 1990s," said Sanders.

The young Tiger team finished the season at a disappointing 8-30 overall, while finishing with a 5-11 record in the district and a 3-9 record in the KIAC. But with a young team, a bright future is expected for these players.

Several players were honored at the end of the season at the 1991 Spring Sports Banquet. Those winning awards were Scott Brown who received the Most Improvement Award; Danny Breeden who received the Mr. Hustle Award and Todd Cook who received the Batting Leader Award.

After a One-Year Layoff From Softball

LADY TIGERS WIN KIAC TOURNEY

After a one-year layoff from softball at Campbellsville College, Donna Wise's Lady Tigers strapped their batting gloves back on and captured the KIAC Tournament title.

The Lady Tigers began the season on a three-game losing streak but came back in top form as they beat Cumberland College 42-3 and 17-7 in a doubleheader.

Going into the KIAC Tournament, the Lady Tigers had been in a horrendous batting slump. But, Campbellsville crushed Georgetown 24-7 in game one of the tourney as they struck for eight in their first time at-bat and ten more in the second inning.

The Lady Tigers won a squeaker in the second game as they edged Union 7-6. Kendra Germain triple scored Becky Smith, who had singled with one out. Smith and Germain each had two RBIs in the winners' bracket championship tilt.

Only Lindsey Wilson, who came out of the loser's bracket, stood between the Lady Tigers and the big trophy. Campbellsville trailed 6-1 after four and a half innings, but tallied six in the bottom of the fifth and held on for a 7-6 nail biter and the tournament title.

Campbellsville entered the KWIC Tournament at a somewhat impressive 12-10. There they won two and lost two finally being eliminated and finishing their season at 14-12.

"We had a lot of fun this year and when we were consistent is when we had our most success," said head coach

Donna Wise, who was named KIAC "Coach of the Year."

Also named to the All-KIAC Team were Ginger High, Becky Smith and Tammy Ford.

TIGERS

take to the Water

The Campbellsville College Swim Team began its inaugural season this year with quite a splash. Consisting of only eight members, The Tiger Sharks made a heavy impact in the district and conference standings.

The women's team consisted of three members with varying degrees of experience. The lone senior on the team was Brenda DeFord, who had no competitive experience prior to the season, but improved all season.

Lynette Ashby, a freshman, was the high-point scorer during the dual meet season. Ashby along with Shanae Netherland, who joined the team in late October, earned All-Conference and All-District Honors.

The women's team placed second at both the conference and district championship meets. With a good recruiting year, the women's team will be a contender next year.

The men's team consisted of five swimmers also with varying degrees of experience.

Michael Ritchey, a freshman, was high-point scorer and was an All-Conference and District selection. Dale

"This year many of our meets would have had a different outcome if we had had just a few more swimmers."

— Coach Steve Bedingfield

Gallagher, also a freshman, was the conference champion in the 100 meter butterfly. He also participated in diving events.

David Golden and Rich Smith, both freshmen, had only one year's prior experience in competitive swimming. Both made tremendous improvements throughout the year. John Wells was the last member of the team who brought his swimming ability to the team in January. He helped to score key points for the team.

The men's team placed second in the conference. They also placed second in the district. Head Coach Steve Bedingfield was named Coach of the Year in the KIAC and District 32. Bedingfield said, "This year many of our meets would have had a different outcome if we had had just a few more swimmers."

TIGERS AND TENNIS

The Winning Combination

The 1990-91 edition of Tiger Tennis hit a rough spot for the men's team because of a lack of bodies on the team.

Because the Tigers did not have enough members to play, the team played as a club, instead of an actual team for the College. The team still held matches with other schools and was very competitive, but none of the matches counted against them which gave each player another year of eligibility.

This year's tennis "club" consisted of Addisu Jiffar, who was named "Mr. Consistency;" W. D. McCubbin, who received the Leadership Award; Joel Arnold, who received the 110% Award; Kevin Merritt, who was this year's MVP and Ben Page. The Tigers were coached by David Parsons.

The women's tennis team had a very successful season as they finished with a record of 7-6, with wins over Alice Lloyd, Lindsey Wilson, Cumberland, Kentucky State, Berea, and Union twice.

The Lady Tigers came in second behind Georgetown in the KIAC Tournament. Christy Schammert won the #6 singles championship and made the All-KIAC team. Pon Thongmanivong, Britt Blanton and Schammert all made

They also finished fourth in the Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (KWIC) Tournament and in the District 32 Tournament in October. Thongmanivong, Blanton and Schammert all won consolation final matches while Blanton and Schammert won the #3 doubles consolation final.

Overall, the women's tennis team improved and has a solid base to build on for the coming season, according to Dr. David Cundiff, head coach of the team.

TIGER GOLF

Getting into the Swing of It

The Campbellsville College Golf Team finished its season with high honors as senior Byron Bennett returned to the NAIA National Golf Tournament in Oklahoma City.

Bennett's second day score of 72 enabled him to earn a share of the KIAC-District 32 Golf Tournament May 3 at Glenwood Hall Country Club in Perry Park, which qualified him for the national tourney.

Bennett and Marvin King of Cumberland College tied for individual honors at the district tournament. But, Bennett picked up medalist honors since King was already eligible for the national tournament.

The 1990-91 Tiger linksters, who were coached by Donna Wise, had five members headed by seniors Bennett, Dee Hutchins and Jerry Butler, junior Jason Worth and freshman Scott Sandidge.

Third row: Brian Bishop, April Carter, Judy Elliott, Shannon Thompson, Cindy Pound, Renee Patterson and Terri Beamer. Mark Hughes was absent.

The 1990-91 Campbellsville College Tiger Cheerleaders undertook the task of creating a new image for the Tiger Cheerleaders.

A talented group of young women were here for tryouts in the summer. The squad was made up of eight women and two men. The squad also added a "Lady Tiger" mascot this season.

With the "new look" and dedication of the '90-'91 cheerleaders, the cheerleaders have been very successful this year.

They practiced several hours each week, worked hard each game and improved tremendously throughout the season. They cheered at all football games and missed only one home basketball game (men's and women's) while attending many of the away games and all the district tournament games.

The cheerleaders ended their season, which started in August 1990, by attending the NAIA Women's Basketball Nationals in Jackson, Tenn., and the NAIA Men's Basketball Nationals in Kansas City, Mo.

During the fall semester, the senior class officers participated in the new student orientation and acted as host/hostesses throughout the first week. The second week of school the seniors were in charge of Freshman Week. They gave the freshmen green painter caps and the seniors wore pink caps.

During the fall and spring semesters, the senior class have been successful in sponsoring C.A.R.E. Pax for students. Through this program, parents are contacted to send a check for a box full of goodies to be delivered to students during finals week. In December, the senior class delivered 90 C.A.R.E. Pax to resident students.

The senior class has also been involved in seminars relating to career counseling, job placement and job fairs.

The class officers have all worked together to improve the sophomore class budget. The sophomore class started the 1990-91 school year with a balance of zero. Through hard work and class participation, our class has achieved a somewhat fatter bank account.

We were able to raise money by selling Tiger boxer shorts and selling pictures for the Homecoming '90 Dance.

Our goal as the sophomore class officers was to unify the class as a whole. We were pleased with the participation of our class members, and we look forward to greater participation next year.

BOBBI-LYNN WYLAND — It was the best of times; it was the worst of times; a tale of two yearbooks. Cramming two years of active college life into six months of work took courage, patience and rage.

I enjoyed working on the yearbook for the friendship, patience, quick learning skills and frustration control that it taught me. I feel pride and satisfaction for our staff for doing what no one thought we could. I will work on the yearbook again, but I wouldn't repeat this year for anything.

JAMIE HUMPHREY — It was extremely tiring and trying working on the 1989-90 and 1990-91 yearbooks for everyone on the staff. Everyone worked long hours trying to make these two yearbooks two of the best yet.

All I can say is "Thank you, Lord for giving every one of us the patience and the strength to go on and meet our deadlines."

It was not a bed of roses, but pure teamwork made it all come together. I sincerely hope that the 1989-90 and 1990-91 yearbooks have helped to capture the great memories that will last a lifetime.

VIRGINIA FLANAGAN — The completion of the 1991 yearbook will conclude a six-month marathon for the public relations office. We have produced the 1990 and the 1991 books during this period of time.

We hope you enjoy the books and in the years to come they will help you remember your experiences at Campbellsville College and be important to you.

RICHTIE STRATTON — While working on the yearbook, I was often able to think of things I would rather have been doing. I could have been socializing, golfing or sometimes even studying would have been more exciting.

Overall, however, working on the yearbook was a rewarding experience. As a freshman, it helped me to learn more about the college and about the people who are a part of it.

The best part of working on the yearbook was working with the yearbook staff. The advisors in the PR office are caring and understanding while the other staff members are some of the friendliest people I have ever met. Working with all of these great people has made my year of working on the yearbook one that I will never forget.

CONNIE WILSON — It's been a very busy time in the Public Relations Office as we've tried to accomplish the task of completing two yearbooks in the past six months. Without everyone in the office pulling together, we could not have succeeded. Hopefully, as you browse through these pages, you'll cherish the memories we've tried to capture. That's what makes irritated eyes from proofreading and stress from deadlines worthwhile.

MELISSA SPOWLS — When I was asked to serve as yearbook editor, I was rather anxious, having never really worked on a yearbook before. (I wrote copy for the 1988 Maple Trail, but that's nothing compared to being editor!) However, I was enthusiastic about the challenging task at hand. I did enjoy my tenure as yearbook editor. There were days when I thought, "We're never going to get this thing done!" I rather liked the challenge of completing two Maple Trails in six months. To my staff and everyone who made these two yearbooks possible, "Thanks!"

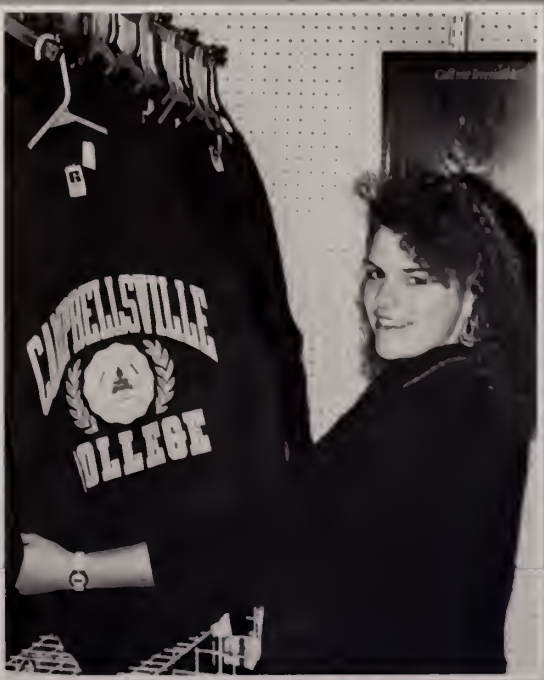

JOAN MCKINNEY — "Can we ever get back to normal?" I keep asking myself. Two yearbooks in one year has been exhausting, but I'm proud of our products. The PR staff worked long and hard to make the two books the best we could. I hope our readers feel good when they see our books. I hope our photographs make you smile and feel proud of Campbellsville College. Everyone on the staff needs a great "Thank You" and "Well Done." We could not have done it without you.

MISSY MALONE — When asked to help out on the yearbook — or I guess I should say, two yearbooks — I was excited, eager to learn and a little unsure of what to expect. However, I soon learned what to expect: work, work, work! Yearbook days were long days and confusing days. Since I had never worked on a yearbook before, it took me a while to catch on to all the terms and procedures. Despite all the frustration, there were laughs and pride and lots of teamwork. It was exciting to help recreate two years in the life of Campbellsville College. I am excited now to be able to say that finally all the memories are documented on the pages of the yearbook for all of you to cherish.

JIM SEARS — Not having worked on a yearbook before, I did not know what to expect as we began this wonderful adventure we call Maple Trail. But after sitting in front of hundreds of pictures and putting in countless hours, I think we have finally come up with something that can be cherished for a lifetime. It was a lot of hard work, but I think it will be worth it as you can pull out this book 20 years from now and see how much your friends have changed as your mouth drops to the floor! I would like to thank everyone I've asked to get all the sports stuff together for this thing, and I would like to dedicate the sports to my dear friend Christy. I miss you number five.

SANDY CRIBBS — This past year, I had the pleasure of being one of the photographers for public relations. Although this job was demanding, I have enjoyed going different places and taking pictures. It was especially thrilling to be able to go to both Jackson, Tenn. and Kansas City, Mo. I hope to come back and work at the public relations office again.

CLOSING — INDEX

End of a Journey

Already you have reached the end of your journey down the Maple Trail.

We hope your trip through Campbellsville College 1991 pleased you with a smile or a laugh. We hope some photograph or story captured one of your most memorable moments or reminded you of a moment you had forgotten already.

And we hope from time to time you will pick up the yearbook again and for old time's sake go wandering back down Memory Lane to the days when you were a student at Campbellsville College.

COLOPHON

Six hundred fifty copies of the 1991 Maple Trail, Volume 63, were printed by Taylor Publishing Company at the plant in Dallas, Texas.

This 9x12 inch book has 160 pages printed on 80 lb. enamel paper. Smyth binding is used to attach the cover to the contents. The cover design, selected from Taylor's design book, was printed on a white lexitone material using the silkscreen process. The endsheets are gray felt 65# stock with a die-cut tiger paw.

Body copy is set in 10 or 12 pt. Times Roman. Captions are set in 8 pt. type and photography credits are set in 6 pt. type. Headlines ranged from 24 to 60 pt.

Delmar Studios received the bid to do individual portraits; other photos came from the Public Relations Office.

Thanks to all who made this book possible. We appreciate all the phone calls about "what's happening" and the loan of pictures. We especially appreciate the "Central Kentucky News-Journal" who loaned us several pictures.

Special thanks to Hugh Black, our Taylor representative, who always had good advice anytime that we called, day or night.
